

Census of Willey Green 1901

From the Census of England and Wales 1901

DESCRIPTION OF ENUMERATION DISTRICT

1. Civil Parish WORPLESDON (part of)
2. Ecclesiastical Parish WORPLESDON St. Mary with Burpham (part of)
- 3 and 4 Not applicable
5. Rural District GUILDFORD (part of)
6. Parliamentary Division CHERTSEY DIVISION OF SURREY (part of)
7. Town, Village or Hamlet WILLEY GREEN - (entire)

Boundary of Enumeration District

The compiler of the original census return appears to have started his Willey Green tour at Frog Grove Farm, worked his way along the Aldershot Road up to Tickners Bridge and then either used the short cut to Bailes Lane or retraced his steps to the turning on the Aldershot Road at Willey Green and then proceeded down Bailes Lane finally cutting across to Wood Street via Passengers Farm.

The entries were transcribed from microfische copies of the originals and are held in the Surrey History

Abbreviations used in "Condition as to Marriage" column

M – married ; S - Single ; W - Widow/Widower

Under "Medical Incapacity"

1 - Deaf and Dumb; 2 - Deaf; 3 - Blind; 4 - Lunatic; 5 - Imbecile, Feeble Minded.

Transcribed from the originals in 2007 by member J W Kinder

DISCLAIMER

The compiler of the Census Return appears to have started his Willey Green tour at Frog Grove, Wood Street Village, worked his way along Frog Grove Lane then used a field path (now defined as a public footpath), to Wipley Farm and so to Willey Green continuing his survey at what is now Chapel Farm Cottage and then along the present Aldershot Road and Guildford Road, past the Duke of Normandy Public House to the last cottage now known as 1 Willey Green Cottages. He then proceeded southwards in Bailes Lane finally cutting across to Wood Street village via
