DM February 2011

NORMANDY HISTORIANS

I very much regret that Diana & myself are unable to attend the Twenty-Fourth AGM but we have a long-term commitment to visit China on this date.

However I am glad to say the Vice Chairman Jack Kinder is able to stand in for me. I am also pleased to say that all the retiring Executive Committee except Derek Francis and Neville Wheatley, are willing to be considered for re-election. We therefore have two vacancies.

The principal object of the Society is to research the history of the village and this is continuing to be carried out by the Committee and other members. Initially, research concentrated on those aspects of the village that had been taken very much for granted – Wanborough Station, Westwood Place, the Coussmaker Family, St Mark's Church, the Chapels, the Schools, Normandy Park, the Village Hall and the role that Henley Park and Vokes played in the lives of the inhabitants.

The outcome of some of this work has been illustrated in three book publications – Westwood, Normandy Park and A Century of Normandy in Surrey. Some copies are still available, as a book or CD.

John Squier has been deeply involved in the gigantic task of research related to Henley and Vokes. The results are now included in his draft publication A History of Henley Park, currently being proof- read, and after various checks and additions should be ready for publication later this year.

Other ongoing work includes keeping records of Normandy in the press, scrapbook indexing, War Memorial biography and property research, the photographing and listing of details of headstones in St Mark's old Churchyard and photo and Library indexing.

Over the next few months' further information will be extracted from the Manor of Cleygate documents, many of which are in Latin. We hope to produce some information of Normandy's Royal connections, which would be timely to include in the Queen's Diamond Jubilee celebrations.

Our membership is over 100 and attendance levels at our Open Meetings are consistently in the 40 to 50 region. We enjoy a stable financial position although we may have to increase the subscription in 2013 to meet increased expenses for Speakers and hire of the village hall for our Open Meetings.

The continuing success of Normandy Historians is due in no small way to your Executive Committee. The individual contributions made by former members of the Committee is also very much appreciated. Special thanks to Ashley Hoare who runs our website with great efficiency, to Peter Blakiston for all his continued support and input and to John Hillier who represents us on the Surrey Heath Museum Action Group.

We look forward to a busy and interesting year ahead with the full support and welcome suggestions from all our Members.

Ken Marchant.
Chairman. 2012
