Chairman's Report 2014

Normandy Historians have had a reasonably successful year. All the monthly open meetings have been well attended. Unfortunately there was a patch of 'stormy weather' in the autumn when our speaker had to cancel his October speech due to sudden illness, and our speaker for November had to cancel as well. Despite this we rallied and enjoyed our winter social event in December, where we were challenged by a new style quiz format!

The committee has agreed to cancel the January open meeting from 2015 onwards as it is so soon after the Christmas holiday and the weather is usually rather bleak at that time. The June walk may in the future be a visit rather than a walk as none of us are getting any younger!

With the focus on the start of World War I last year, one of our committee, Peter Southwell, researched the Normandy casualties in depth and created a commemorative exhibition for the Village Fete, which was staffed by our team in period costume and was very well attended. We also staged a re-run of the exhibition on one of the Heritage open days. The children of Wyke School immensely enjoyed a special WWI exhibition and video, laid on by us on the 11th of November at the Royal British Legion Normandy Branch.

Our website is used regularly by both UK and overseas enquirers and our publications A Century of Normandy in Surrey, A History of Normandy Park and Henley Park in Surrey are all available at our open meetings, or contact our secretary. The former publication is available on C.D. and the latter two in book form. Our latest publication, Henley Park in Surrey by John Squier our Treasurer has sold very well so far.

There is one vacancy for a Committee member. Is there a volunteer to join the committee?

Christopher Pettitt,
Chairman

About Normandy Historians

Early in 1987, the Normandy Parish Council expressed its deep concern that knowledge and memories of past village life would be irretrievably lost with the demise of elderly residents, known to have been born in the locality or to have lived the best part of their life in Normandy.

The Chairman and Clerk of the Council, therefore, invited a small group of residents, keen to form a Local History Group, to a private meeting on 23 February 1987 to consider how best to alleviate the concern of the Council.

The group proposed that a Society be formed to record initially the last 100 years of social and cultural living within the village and to launch the project and its objects at a Special Parish Meeting convened for that purpose.

The meeting, attended by about 150 parishioners, was held in the Normandy Village Hall on 18 May 1987. It unanimously determined that a society be formed (suggested title NORMANDY HISTORIANS) with terms of reference "to record and publish the last 100 years history of Normandy in a form acceptable to the Parish Council and for the Council, within reasonable terms, to assist financially in the project".

The inaugural meeting of the Society was held 14 July 1987 when Bill Adey was elected Chairman together with an effective management team elected from the 30 persons present. The first Executive Committee meeting was held 23 September 1987. A formal Constitution was adopted at the Annual General Meeting held 11 October 1989.

The logo of the Society, now affectionately known as "Norman", was used during 1991 in the preparation work for the Wanborough Station Centenary Celebration held in September of that year. Although never officially adopted, "Norman", a much-admired addition to the title of the Society's on its letter heading and literature has remained ever since. He is, of course, a caricature of a warrior, holding his shield of defence in what is normally considered to be the fighting hand, and dressing (a military term) to the left, which again is contrary to normal military drill! He is, however, symbolic of all Local Study Groups, in that he is the Defender of the past and Herald of the future.

Publications

Henley Park in Surrey The History of a Royal Manor

Henley Park in Surrey Henley Park's long history spans over a thousand years from Saxon settlement through royal ownership and more than one stately mansion to a wartime factory and its last-minute rescue from ruin and collapse. New research has revealed the much-debated location of the medieval royal complex as well as a long-forgotten Jacobean-style mansion that predates the Georgian-style mansion that we know today. This history is described in a readable and informative style in our new publication: Henley Park in Surrey, the History of a Royal Manor, by John Squier.

John is an amateur historian who has lived in Normandy for 38 years and was a founder member of Normandy Historians. He has spent many years researching Henley Park since he discovered that his house was briefly part of its extensive estates.

An updated history of Henley Park has long been overdue and with nearly 200 pages of text and 123 illustrations, many in colour, we believe that this is a book worthy of the long and fascinating history of Normandy's most prestigious estate.

Available from Normandy Historians at only £10 plus p&p (£6.50 UK) or at our meetings.

A History of Normandy Park in Surrey

A History of Normandy Park in Surrey is presented as an attractive, glossy soft-back book with cover photo, composed of 114 pages of text, 25 figures and 63 black & white photos featuring Normandy Park house, neighbouring houses and the people who helped to shape that area of Normandy including the author's family.

Jack Kinder, the author demonstrates a unique and succinct style of writing, which coupled with his skill as a draughtsman, so ably demonstrated in the copious figures in the book, will not disappoint the reader.

Notwithstanding the excellence of his work, A History of Normandy Park in Surrey is a veritable tome of reference for family history researchers and for those who have an interest in the transformation and development of a village as its large fruit farms and nurseries disappeared from the rural scene in the late 19th and early 20th Centuries.

Available from Normandy Historians at only £9.50 plus p&p (£3.50 UK) or at our meetings.
